Hotel S. Stefano
VENEZIA

Housed on a fifteenth century watchtower, the Hotel Santo Stefano looks out across one of Venice's sunniest and best- known squares (Campi), five minutes from St. Mark Square and Rialto Bridge.

Extensive restructuring ,the latest carried out just recently, has converted the original building into a refined Hotel rich in atmosphere, making skilful use of the limited space available offers a splendid lobby decorated with Carrara marble plus a panelled ceiling decorated with frescoes.

The furnishings of the rooms display elegance and charme, wall drapes, gilded mirrors, decorated furniture, Poltrona Frau beds, lamps made, courtesy of Barovier & Toso, from Murano glass ,period paintings lit as in a museum,all according to the eigthteenth century, Venetian taste.

All the rooms are air-conditioned and equipped with every comfort: satellite tv, cable tv,dvd, radio,minibar,electronic safe,hair-dryer,each one with a bathroom decorated with marble mosaics and equipped with Jacuzzi and steaming bath.

Most of the rooms look out over the "Campo" (or square), where comfortable armchairs enable our guests to take breakfast outside during the summer months in the space and greenery reserved for the Hotel.
